The Walker, Iowa, News, says: "Our old friend, Robert Baird, of Muscatine, Iowa, has been Secretary of the State Senate, and an active politician for years, but was never generally known until he had the colic, and used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and got into one of their advertisements. "Now he is famous." Here is what Mr. Baird said: "While in Des Moines, I was taken with a severe attack of bowel complaint. For two days I suffered intensely, trying several drug stores and paying them for relief, but in vain. I finally bought a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and two doses of that brought me out all right. It costs less than the drug store preparations and I have the balance for future use. I consider it a grand remedy." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by G. C. Thaxter.

How Can Parents allow their children to cough and strain and cough and calmly say: "Oh! it's only a little cold," and keep giving them cheap and dangerous medicines, until they are down with lung fever or consumption, when they can be so easily relieved by BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP? It has no superior and few equals. W. H. Chedic, Druggist.

"There is corn in Egypt." Genesis, chapter XLII, v. 2.

This is a phrase in very frequent use, employed to signify a superfluity of anything. We use it here in reference to the large stock of shoes, groceries, dry goods etc., carried by Oleovich Bros. Bargains in shoes, await the early customer. The stock is complete in every style of desirable foot gear. Come early and often. 20 tf.

The late John E. Owens used no "make up" whatever in his celebrated character of "Selon Shingle." Nor does Deman Thompson as "Joshua Whitcomb," make any attempt with paint or chalk on his face relying entirely upon his naturally father-like appearance. But Richard Golden, who is a very young person off the stage, has to invoke the aid of art to procure the effect of the advanced age of his creation, "Old Jed Prouty."

Settled it With Pistols.

CHICO, Cal., July 26.—The elopement which occurred here a few days ago culminated in a tragedy this afternoon. A wedding was to have taken place last Monday between a young man named Raymond Bierce, son of the San Francisco journalist, and Miss Eva Adkins, a beautiful young lady 17 years of age. Bierce's most intimate friend was a handsome young man named Neil Hubbs, and he was to have acted as best man at the wedding ceremony. The day before the marriage was to occur Miss Adkins left her home and went to a neighboring town with Hubbs, where the couple were married. They returned here next day, and this morning prepared to make a call upon the bride's mother, Mrs. Barney. Bierce heard of the intended visit, and went to Mrs. Barney's house before Hubbs and his wife arrived. He entered the parlor and fired at Hubbs with a revolver. Hubbs fell to the floor but also drew a revolver and fired. Four shots apiece were fired, when Hubbs ran out of the room. Bierce then placed the revolver to Mrs. Hubbs' head and fired, inflicting a severe but not dangerous wound. Hubbs re-entered the room and beat Bierce to the floor with his revolver. Bierce then dragged himself to an adjoining room, placed the pistol to his head and blew his brains out. He lived about an hour and half. Bierce also received two bullets in the body, and Hubbs was shot through the abdomen, the bullet penetrating the spleen. His recovery is very doubtful.

The Coroner has taken charge of the body of Raymond Bierce and will hold an inquest to-morrow. Mrs. Barney was placed under arrest this morning to await the findings of the Coroner's jury. People seem to think that she could have prevented the sad affair had she warned Hubbs and his wife that Bierce was in the house.

It transpires that Bierce left here Wednesday night, going as far as Sacramento and returning last night. It is said that he made threats to shoot the couple if they returned to Mrs. Barney's, and they were met by friends and warned. Bierce told Mrs. Barney that if anything should happen to him to promptly telegraph to his father who was on a San Francisco paper.

Dr. Rodley has probed three times for the bullet in Hubbs, but has failed to locate it. He says that Hubbs' chances for recovery are one in ten.

LATER.—Hubbs died at 5:30 yesterday morning.

NARROW ESCAPE.—Yesterday morning as John Sweeney had just finished speeding his race horse Patsey and had driven him to the inclosure near his stable to be blanketed, the stable boy rushed out to secure the horse by the head when Patsy reared and threw Sweeney some distance. Sweeney escaped with few bruises.

AN OLD MINT HAND GONE.—Joseph B. Harmstead, who was coiner in the San Francisco mint from 1870 to 1874 and one of the oldest mint men in the United States, died at the residence of his son-in-law, Charles L. Fay, at Portland, Or., July 22. He entered the mint service fifty-two years ago and was seventy five years old when he died. The deceased was well known in Carson, where for several years he held a position in the mint at this place.

Cough! and Cough!! and Cough!!!
What in the world is the reason you will cough and keep coughing and still keep trying inferior medicines when BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP will positively relieve your cough at once? This is no advertising scheme, but an actual fact, and we guarantee it. W. H. Chedic, Druggist.

Judge D. S. Terry stepped between Judge J. B. Campbell and lawyer W. E. Turner at Fresno, Friday and prevented a threatened slogging match in the court room. Judge Campbell refused the application of Turner for overtime to address a jury, and was charged with being unjust in his ruling, when the Judge cursed him and said he (Turner) uttered an untruth.

Colonel J. W. Mervyn Donahue, President of the California Athletic Club, has offered a purse of $7,000 for a finish fight between Jake Kilrain and Peter Jackson, the fight to come off in California within six months. Colonel Donahue offered to contribute the purse from his own resources. He believes Kilrain to be a much better man than he showed himself in his conflict with Sullivan and makes the present offer to the defeated pugilist to afford the latter an opportunity of re-establishing his reputation.

Ready to Meet Sullivan.
LONDON, July 26.—Jem Smith, in an interview, says: "My challenge to Sullivan was made in good faith. I am ready to meet him anywhere this side of the water or the other and give him all the preliminary advantages. My manager has already deposited a thousand pounds in gold with the Sporting Life. We are willing to send it to New York when necessary. My only stipulation is that the meeting shall come off in cold or mild weather. I would not go into the ring under the atmospheric conditions that prevailed at Richburg. It would be simply suicidal."

"Do you think you would stand any show against Sullivan?"
"Well," was the reply, "the fact that our money is up speaks for itself. Sullivan is no doubt a great fighter and just now in his prime. At the same time I believe I could give him the best fight he has had yet and whip him to boot. I would not want seventy-five rounds or two hours to do it."

Smith is in magnificent condition. He is very temperate and careful in his diet and habits. He takes daily exercise as if training for a mill. It would only require a reduction of weight to make him ready for the ring at short notice.

What on Earth
Is the reason people will not, cannot, or do not see any difference in cheap nos trums put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER & BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work, will cost you nothing. W. H. Chedic, Druggist.
